

Malala's speech in United Nations

Dear brother's and sister's, do remember one thing: Malala Day is not my day. Today is the day of every woman, every boy and every girl who have raised their voice for their rights.

There are hundreds of human rights activists and social workers who are not only speaking for their rights, but who are struggling to achieve their goal of peace, education and equality.

Thousands of people have been killed by the terrorists and millions have been injured.

I am just one of them. So here I stand, one girl among many. I speak not for myself.

So let us wage a glorious struggle against illiteracy, poverty and terrorism, let us pick up our books and our pens, they are the most powerful weapons.

One child, one teacher, one book and one pen can change the world. Education is the only solution.

Education first. Thank you.
